SRP Racing Team will use Maranello Kart's chassis at the forthcoming Trofeo delle Industrie in Lonato as a preview of what is ahead in 2019.

Maranello Kart is delighted to announce an important collaboration with SRP Racing Team that will employ the chassis of the Italian make at the forthcoming Trofeo delle Industrie, race scheduled for October 28th at South Garda Karting in Lonato. The team will also use Maranello Kart's chassis for the whole season 2019 in International races, European Championships, FIA World Karting Championship and DKM (Germany).

The one just signed is going to be a very important partnership for Maranello Kart, that will have the competitiveness of SRP Racing Team's drivers on its side, starting from KZ2 European Champion and fresh DKM winner Fabian Federer, and also for SRP Racing Team that will have the chance to effectively contribute to the development of the Maranello Kart chassis.

In the Trofeo delle Industrie, alongside KZ2 drivers Andrea Ceresoli and Francesco Galletto of Team Maranello with SG Race, the following SRP Racing Team's drivers will be on track for their first official exit on Maranello Kart's chassis: Fabian Federer, Fabrizio Rosati, David Trefilov, Alessio La Martina and Enrico Bernardotto in KZ2, while Leon Hoffmann will be present in 60 Mini.

Maranello Kart's manager, Luca Iannaccone: "I am really excited and positive about this new collaboration. SRP is a young Team with a lot of thrust to shine that has shown an excellent competitiveness in the main events of the season. In 2019, alongside competing in International races, SRP Racing Team will also have an important role in the sales market. Together with the historic and important Germany reseller Manuel Nees (Nees Racing Team), the Team led by Maik

Siebeck (SRP) will strengthen the sales network on the German territory. On behalf of the Company, I wish to send a special thanks to Giancarlo Tinini that gave us an important testimonial like Fabian Federer.”
