Throughout the competition, the Maranello Kart drivers stood out for their competitiveness and speed. Fabian Federer (SRP) protagonist throughout the wee-kend conquers the second step of the podium. Throughout the race it shone demonstrating the competitiveness of the material and the steps forward made by the company thanks to the work done by its technicians in the last few months. The performance of Trefilov David (SRP) was also excellent. The young driver who in the final stands out to be one of the fastest on the lap is penalized with 5 seconds for the spoiler after a race contact making him downgrade from P8 to P15 but proves to have all the credentials to be one of the major players of this season. An excellent Rosati Fabrizio (SGRace) who recovers six positions in the final and places P9 proves he has what it takes to do very well. Unlucky race for Rossini Nicola (SGRace), penalized in the Heats by an accident that does not give him the possibility to enter the final as well as La Martina Alessio.

The performance of Hoffmann Leon (SRP) in the OKJ category was also very performing, stopped by a bad accident on Sunday morning in the Elimination Heats that did not allow him access to the pre-final.
